SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Department of Defense (DoD) and the Designated Federal Officer, the Defense Innovation

Board was unable to provide public notification required by 41 CFR 102-3.150(a) concerning the meeting on April 26, 2018, of the Defense Innovation Board. Accordingly, the Advisory Committee Management Officer for the Department of Defense, pursuant to 41 CFR 102-3.150(b), waives the 15-calendar day notification requirement. This meeting is being held in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) (5 U.S.C., Appendix), the Government in the Sunshine Act (5 U.S.C. 552b) (“the Sunshine Act”), and 41 CFR 102-3.140 and 102-3.150.

Purpose of the Meeting: The mission of the DIB is to examine and provide the Secretary of Defense and the Deputy Secretary of Defense independent advice and recommendations on innovative means to address future challenges in terms of integrated change to organizational structure and processes, business and functional concepts, and technology applications. The DIB focuses on (a) technology and capabilities, (b) practices and operations, and (c) people and culture.

Agenda: During the closed portion of the meeting, the DIB will receive classified informational briefings from the Executive Director of the DIB related to DoD’s latest efforts to leverage advances in artificial intelligence and machine learning and from the Secretary of the Navy related to innovation priorities and ongoing activities within the U.S. Navy.

During the open portion of the meeting, the DIB will invite selected experts to provide analysis and inputs related to software acquisition and development. Experts include Lieutenant General Lee Levy, U.S. Air Force, Commander, Air Force Sustainment Center; Rear Admiral David Hahn, U.S. Navy, Chief of Naval Research; Ms. Jane Rathbun, Deputy Director, Business Systems, DoD; Colonel Mike McGinley, U.S. Air Force, Defense Innovation Unit Experimental – Boston; Ms. Jen Edgin, Chief Technology Officer, U.S. Marine Corps; Captain Bryon Kroger, U.S. Air Force, Chief Operations Officer, Kessel Run. DIB members will present their initial research and plan for the Software Acquisition and Practices (SWAP) study directed in the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2018 (“the FY18 NDAA”) . The DIB will deliberate and vote on the initial SWAP observations, referred to as the 10 Commandments of Software for DoD, and the research plan intended to be submitted as the interim report to Congress required by the FY18 NDAA. The DIB’s Executive Director will brief the DIB on DoD’s latest implementation activities related to DIB recommendations. Members of the public will have an opportunity to provide oral comments to the DIB regarding the DIB’s deliberations and potential recommendations. See below for additional information on how to sign up to provide public comments.

Meeting Accessibility: Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(1), the DoD has determined that the portion of the meeting from 12:30 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. shall be closed to the public. The Chief Management Officer, in consultation with the Office of the DoD General Counsel, has determined in writing that this portion of the DIB’s meeting will be closed as the discussions will involve classified matters of national security. Such classified material is so inextricably intertwined with the unclassified material that it cannot reasonably be segregated into separate discussions without disclosing matters that are classified SECRET or higher. Pursuant to Federal statutes and regulations (the FACA, the Sunshine Act, and 41 CFR 102-3.140 through 102-3.165) and the availability of space, the meeting is open to the public from 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Seating is on a first-come basis. Members of the public wishing to attend the meeting or wanting to receive a link to the live stream webcast should register on the DIB website, <http://innovation.defense.gov>, no later than April 24, 2018. Members of the media should RSVP to Commander Patrick Evans, U.S. Navy, Office of the Secretary of Defense Public Affairs, at Patrick.L.Evans.mil@mail.mil.

Special Accommodations: Individuals requiring special accommodations to access the public meeting should contact the Designated Federal Officer (DFO), see “For Further Information Contact” section for contact information, no later than April 24, 2018, so that appropriate arrangements can be made.

Written Statements: Pursuant to section 10(a)(3) of the FACA and 41 CFR 102-3.140, the public or interested organizations may submit written comments to the DIB about its approved agenda pertaining to this meeting or at any time regarding the DIB’s mission. Individuals submitting a written statement must submit their statement to the DFO (see “For Further Information Contact” section for contact information). Written comments that do not pertain to a scheduled meeting may be submitted at any time. However, if individual comments pertain to a specific topic being discussed at the planned meeting, then such comments must be received in writing not later than April 24, 2018. The DFO will compile all written submissions and provide them to DIB members for consideration.

Oral Presentations: Individuals wishing to make an oral statement to the DIB at the public meeting may be permitted to speak for up to two minutes. Anyone wishing to speak to the DIB should submit a request by email at osd.innovation@mail.mil not later than April 24, 2018 for planning. Requests for oral comments should include a copy or summary of planned remarks for archival purposes. Individuals may also be permitted to submit a comment request at the public meeting; however, depending on the number of individuals requesting to speak, the schedule may limit participation. Webcast attendees will be provided instructions with the live stream link if they wish to submit comments during the open meeting.

Dated: April 23, 2018.

Shelly E. Finke,

Alternate OSD Federal Register Liaison Officer,

Department of Defense.
